

“The IDEA: Journal of Applied Research”

Ethical Statement

Hereby, I /insert author name/ consciously assure that for the manuscript /insert title/ the following is fulfilled:

- 1) This material is the authors' own original work, which has not been previously published elsewhere and the paper is not currently being considered for publication elsewhere.
- 2) The paper reflects the authors' own research and analysis. All sources used are properly disclosed (correct citation).
- 3) The paper properly credits the meaningful contributions of co-authors and co-researchers. All authors have been personally involved in work leading to the paper and will take public responsibility for its content.
- 4) In the process of paper writing the authors followed common rules of the Research Ethic. All research studies on humans (individuals, samples or data) have been performed in accordance with the principles stated in the Declaration of Helsinki. All studies in patients or volunteers were informed consent.
- 5) The paper's material does not entail risk of any chemical, physical, psychological, or ergonomic hazards and doesn't harm humans or animals that were involved in the research. Study within the paper does not lead to risk, violence and social vulnerability in population groups or individuals.
- 6) The paper does not entail conflict of interest. All financial and non-financial (political, personal, religious, ideological, academic, and intellectual) competing interests are declared by the authors.
- 7) The consent and permission to access institutions where study was conducted is acquired.
- 8) The violation of the Ethical Statement rules may result in severe consequences.

I agree with the above statements and declare that this submission follows the policies of as outlined in the IDEA Journal of Applied Research Guidelines for the Authors and in the Ethical Statement.

Date:

Corresponding author's signature: